Vodňany, 14. 10. 2020

Measure of the Dean No. 26/2020 Statute of the Faculty School of the FFPW USB

This Measure issues the Statute of the Faculty School of the Faculty of Fisheries and Protection of Waters of the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice (hereinafter FFPW USB), which sets the basic rules and procedures for bestowing and dealing with the title "the Faculty School of the FFPW USB".

Preamble

Closer cooperation between universities and school facilities of lower education levels increases the efficiency of the entire education system in the Czech Republic. The FFPW USB aims to participate in the improvement of education in areas related to the protection of waters and aquatic ecosystems and their effective and sustainable use for the needs of society as a whole. For this reason, it establishes the title "the Faculty School of the FFPW USB", which can be bestowed to institutions providing lower than university education. We believe that this "brand" will help identify i) institutions that strive to ensure quality education in the above areas, respectively they really care about this provision and ii) partners who work closely and regularly with the FFPW USB to fulfil the goal.

Article 1

Area of cooperation between FFPW USB and the Faculty School

Areas of cooperation between the FFPW USB and the Faculty School can be the following:

- Regular support of high school students' interest in areas related to the protection of waters and aquatic ecosystems and their efficient and sustainable use.
- Regular targeted programs for finding and working with talented students of Faculty Schools interested in the protection of waters and aquatic ecosystems and their effective and sustainable use.
- Efforts to cooperate regularly in submitting joint grant projects.
- Cooperation for the purpose of providing internships for students of cooperating pedagogical faculties of universities with approbation focused on the protection of water, aquatic ecosystems and their sustainable and effective use or, doctoral students of the FFPW USB, who need to gain pedagogical practice.

- Regular support of further education of secondary school teachers, who can pass on knowledge about the protection of waters and aquatic ecosystems and their effective and sustainable use in the conduct of teaching in schools or other educational and hobby events of the educational institution.

Article 2

Criteria for bestowing the title of the Faculty School of the FFPW USB

- 1) The title of the Faculty School may be bestowed to a school facility established and administered in accordance with the Act No. 561/2004 Coll. on pre-school, primary, secondary, higher vocational and other education (hereinafter referred to as the Education Act).
- 2) Quality teaching of subjects or educational programs is carried out at the school facility, or the school facility has enormous interest in quality provision of educational programs, with an orientation on biology, chemistry, nature, environment, animal husbandry, agriculture, veterinary aspects, legislation and other directions which include an emphasis on the protection of waters and aquatic ecosystems and / or their efficient and sustainable use. The quality of teaching is reflected, for example, in participation and good placement in science-oriented competitions.
- 3) The relevant school facility has educational staff willing to include current knowledge in teaching and learn. The school facility has sufficient material and technical equipment for teaching subjects, or their parts oriented to the areas listed in point 2).
- 4) The school management and individual teachers focusing on education in the areas listed in point 2) are interested in active participating in the implementation of the established areas of cooperation.

Article 3

Procedure for bestowing the title of the Faculty School

- 1) The request for bestowing the title "The Faculty School of the FFPW USB" must come in writing from the statutory body of the applicant authorized to sign contracts and agreements. The application is addressed to the Dean of the faculty. The application shall include basic ideas about areas of cooperation and information demonstrating compliance with the criteria set out in the Article 2.
- 2) The request is submitted to the chairman of the Working Committee for bestowing the title of the Faculty School of the FFPW USB. The Working Committee headed by the chairman is appointed by the Dean. The Working Committee has at least three members.

- 3) The Working Committee shall assess the application, or request the statutory body asking for bestowing the title to supplement it. The Committee shall act without delay within its time possibilities.
- 4) Part of the negotiation of the Working Committee is also a visit to the applicant's facility.
- 5) The Working Committee will prepare a statement for the Dean. Based on it, either the Dean stops the proceedings or has the request discussed in the faculty bodies at his discretion. The statutory body of the applicant is informed about the termination of the proceedings. It is a unilateral act. The applicant has no right of appeal. However, the Dean may resume proceedings at any time.
- 6) If the faculty bodies recommend to the Dean to bestow the applicant the title of the Faculty School of the FFPW USB, both parties will immediately start negotiating the establishment of a specific cooperation agreement.
- 7) If there is an agreement between the institutions, the Dean of the FFPW USB will issue a Certificate to the applicant for the bestowing of the title "the Faculty School of the FFPW USB". When the Certificate is handed over, a joint agreement on the specific setting of cooperation between the two institutions will also be signed. The agreement may be changed by amendments.

Article 3

Commitments and duties of cooperating parties

- 1) Commitments and duties of the contracting parties in connection with bestowing the title of the Faculty School are regulated in the agreement of both parties, which is concluded at the time of handing over the Certificate of bestowing the title of the Faculty School.
- 2) The agreement also includes the conditions for the use of the FFPW USB logo by the Faculty School.

Article 4

Validity, termination and withdrawal of the title of the Faculty School

- 1) The title of the Faculty School is bestowed for a maximum period of 5 years. At the end of this period, the title is terminated. Repeated renewal of the title is possible without the need to discuss a new application.
- 2) There is no legal right to obtain the title of the Faculty School.
- 3) The title of the Faculty School may be revoked to an educational institution before the expiry of the agreement on the basis of a written statement of the will of the faculty, especially with regard to the non-fulfilment of the mutual agreement by the other party. The written statement of the Dean will state the reasons leading to the premature termination of the bestowing of the title. It is a unilateral act. The educational institution has no right to appeal against the statement. The awarded title expires 30 days after the delivery of the statement on the termination of the bestowed title to the educational institution.
